

EUROPEAN FIRE SERVICE COLLEGES' ASSOCIATION (Civil Safety)

CONSTITUTION

1 Title and Address

- 1.1 The Organisation shall be known as the European Fire Service Colleges' Association (*Civil Safety), hereinafter and generally referred to as EFSCA.
- 1.2 EFSCA is an Association with full legal capacity according to the Dutch law. A description in detail of the liability of members can be found in Appendix I.
- 1.3 EFSCA is a non-for-profit organisation; not intended to make a profit.
- 1.2 The address of EFSCA shall be the address of the Secretariat, registered in Arnhem The Netherlands.

2 Aims and Objectives

2.1 Aims

2.1.1 To provide a forum for formal working relationships among the representatives of European countries, who have the authority to present the experiences, views and opinions of their colleges at national level.

2.1.2 To make information available to the participating States of the European Union, other European countries and member governments in matters concerning education and vocational training (with associated skills, knowledge and understanding), so as to more effectively meet the personal and organisational development needs of personnel engaged in European fire services and in civil safety.

2.1.3 To make information available to the European countries and the Governments of the Member States in the fields of education and professional training (with appurtenant skills, knowledge and insight) in order to be able to realize the personal and organizational development needs of staff within the framework of European firefighting and civil safety more effectively.

2.1.4 To promote and assist research and development.

2.2 Objectives

2.2.1 To provide advice on personal and organisational development matters to the European Union and other relevant organisations.

2.2.2 To promote transnational co-operation between the European countries.

2.2.3 To exchange information and debate matters of interest on all aspects related to training on civil safety.

2.2.4 To assist the development of personnel and organisations throughout Europe by education and training programmes.

* includes Civil Protection and Civil Defence

2.2.5 To support the development of educational training tools and technologies.

2.2.6 To co-operate in the development, testing and implementation of projects under European Community programmes.

2.2.7 To encourage the development, transfer and use of common standards and qualifications throughout the European countries.

2.2.8 To support the development and implementation of training policies throughout the European countries.

2.2.9 To promote, encourage and support activities or organisations committed to the advancement of education and training which EFSCA believes will assist the achievement of its objectives.

2.2.10 Actively seek to work with other recognised organisations and agencies within the Union to further the aims and objectives of the Association.

2.2.11 Positively contribute to the consultative process with regards to EU legislative change, directives, communications and adopted resolutions.

2.2.12 Monitor EU policy and identify opportunities and threats to the Association's stated aims and objectives.

2.2.13 Reflect EU policy regarding personal and organisational development.

3. Subscription

3.1 Each member shall be responsible for the payment of a subscription by 1 June of each year. The sum of subscription will be proposed by Board, but the decision shall be made by member voting in General Assembly on the basis of consensus.

3.2. If the subscription (annual fee) is not paid for 2 years, the member is excluded from EFSCA. The decision is made by the Board and the member is informed by sending the informative letter.

4 Membership

4.1 Shall comprise representatives of countries of European Union and other nominated countries authorised to represent the national views of college establishments, providing national education and vocational training (with associated skills, knowledge and understanding), so as to more effectively meet the training and career development needs of personnel engaged in European services and in civil safety organisations.

4.2 Members should be able to implement action to assist in achieving EFSCA's objectives.

4.3 Obligations

4.3.1 Members shall be represented by a maximum of 2 official delegates and should normally include the head of the establishment or a representative empowered to speak as a delegate one of whom should be a serving member of the fire service or a fire service college.
